

View page

The screenshot shows a window titled "Add page" with a light gray border and three window control buttons (minimize, maximize, close) in the top-left corner. The main content area has a light gray grid background. At the top, there is a dark gray header bar with the text "HEADER" in white, centered. Below the header, there is a section titled "New page" in a small, dark gray font. Under this section, there are four form fields: "Page title:" followed by a text input field, "Page body:" followed by a text input field, "page order:" followed by a dropdown menu showing "After page 2", and "Page style:" followed by a dropdown menu showing "Dark Style". Below these fields is a button labeled "Add page". At the bottom of the grid, there is a dark gray footer bar with the text "Footer" on the left.
